Course Outline:

This course examines the nature, causes and consequences of international trade. (Some topics may be added or deleted depending on time constraints.) Students should read the textbook by Rivoli as quickly as possible.

1. Trade and Technology: The Ricardian Model – F&T Chapter 2
 2. The Heckscher-Ohlin Model – F&T Chapter 4
 3. Migration – F&T Chapter 5
 4. Increasing Returns to Scale and Monopolistic Competition – F&T Chapter 6
 5. Offshoring of Goods and Services – F&T, Chapter 7
- .../2

Students must have finished reading the textbook by Rivoli at this time.

6. Import Tariffs and Quotas under Perfect Competition – F&T, Chapter 8
7. Import Tariffs and Quotas under Imperfect Competition – F&T, Chapter 9
8. Export Subsidies in Agriculture and High-Technology Industries – F&T, Chapter 10
9. International Agreements: Trade, Labor, and the Environment – F&T, Chapter 11

A follow-up course, Economics 425 (International Trade II), provides students with a more detailed explanation of trade flows and goes on to consider issues such as: strategic trade policy in the presence of imperfect competition; trade, growth and technological change; trade-related aspects of intellectual property; and trade, trade policy and the environment. Normally, Economics 321, is a prerequisite for Economics 425 and Economics 357 (Intermediate Microeconomics II) is a co-requisite.

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

Midterm 1	30%	Monday, October 7, 2013
Midterm 2	20%	Monday, November 4, 2013
Final Examination	50%	Scheduled by Registrar – 2 Hours

The midterm exam will be held in class on the date indicated. The time and location of the final exam, which will be two hours in length, will be scheduled by the Registrar's Office. Exam questions will consist of multiple choice questions. Exam questions are intended to be challenging (they are "tests" of your understanding of the material). The use of a non-programmable calculator during exams is permitted. The use of graphing calculators, computers, and cell phones is not permitted.

The midterm exam, assignment, and the final exam are marked on a numerical basis. The grades are then added using the weights indicated above. As a guide to determining standing, these letter grade equivalences will generally apply:

A+	97 - 100	B	79 - 83	C-	62 - 66
A	92 - 96	B-	76 - 78	D+	57 - 61
A-	89 - 91	C+	73 - 75	D	50 - 56
B+	84 - 88	C	67 - 72	F	0 - 49

Notes:

1. Students should be aware that no "make-up" midterms will be given. Any student who finds it necessary to miss the midterm must notify the instructor in advance and produce a valid medical certificate or other required documentation in order to have the weighting adjusted. This adjustment will result in the final exam counting for 80% of the final grade and the assignments counting for 20% of the final grade.
2. Examinations will not be given prior to the scheduled date.
3. Answers to the midterm test, the assignment and the final exam questions must make use of equations and diagrams wherever possible. Numerical questions require numerical answers.
4. Students will not be given extra time to complete tests and exams.
5. Students should be aware of the academic regulations outlined in The University of Calgary Calendar.
6. The use of cell phones for any purpose in class is prohibited. The classroom is a no cell phone zone. Computers may only be used for note-taking purposes.
7. Students seeking reappraisal of a piece of graded term work should discuss their work with the instructor within 15 days of work being returned to class; however, the earliest that grades will be discussed will be two days after the return of an assignment or examination.
8. Students will be responsible for all material listed on the course outline, regardless of whether or not the material has been covered in class, unless the instructor notifies the class that the material will not be covered.
9. Please note that the following types of emails will receive no response: emails not addressed to anyone in particular; emails where the recipient's name is not spelled correctly; anonymous emails; emails which do not specify the course and section in which you are registered; and, emails involving questions that are specifically addressed on the course outline.
10. It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 403-220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course.
