Course Description:
Examination of the institutions behind and economic rationale for Canadian government policy relating to public expenditures and taxation. Topics may include the history and present structure of government spending and taxation, tax expenditures, the budgetary process, inter-jurisdictional issues and programme design.

Course Learning Outcomes:
This course is designed to expose you to various theories and models that explain the rationale for various tax and expenditure policies commonly employed in (Canadian) public finance decisions. This course focuses on breadth over depth (ie, it provides an overview of a wide range of topics rather than an in-depth analysis of a few topics).

Prerequisites/corequisites:
ECON 201 and ECON 203

Required Textbook:
- This book can be purchased through the university bookstore
  (www.calgarybookstore.ca/buy_book_details.asp?pf_id=13081003) or through McGraw Hill’s website

Online Delivery:
This course is delivered online. You are expected to be able to participate online in accordance with this Course Outline. Lectures, assignments, office hours, exams readings and other course material all require online access and this access is your responsibility.

To participate, you need to have: a computer with an up-to-date operating system (macOS or Windows works with all university-supported online learning technologies); an up-to-date web browser (Firefox, Safari, Chrome or Edge should help to avoid compatibility issues); a secure, regular and reliable internet connection; a webcam (optional); microphone/headphones; and, a scanner, camera or free downloadable app to scan your work.
Desire2Learn:
This course makes use of the Desire2Learn (D2L) platform. You can log on at http://d2l.ucalgary.ca through your student centre. - The official grading system will be used. See http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html.
- You must receive a passing grade on the final to pass the course.
- If your letter grade on the final exceeds your grade on a midterm, the weight of that midterm may be transferred to the final at the instructor’s discretion. This can only apply if you have written the midterms or provided supporting documentation, such as a medical note or statutory declaration, for the absence.

- It is unlikely that class will end early. In the event that we complete the designated lecture material before the end of the scheduled time, office hours will begin immediately and continue for 60 minutes.
Lectures:
- Lectures are delivered via Zoom at the Registrar-scheduled times.
- Lectures are recorded and subsequently posted to D2L, where they are always available (as long as D2L is working) except during exams.

Office Hours:
- Office hours are not recorded, optional and take place online (the 60 minutes immediately following lectures on MW).
- As with traditional on-campus office hours, you are received on a first-come, first-served basis and not by appointment. You sit in a virtual waiting room until the instructor is ready to admit you.
- If you use the opportunity, you are expected to “arrive” prepared (ie, with your questions ready) and to be efficient so that the maximum number of students can make use of the available time.
- If you cannot attend office hours because of scheduling conflicts, you can email questions with attached audio, video and/or pictures. The more precise your question, the faster and more precise the response.

Midterm and Final Exams:
- There are two midterms (July 11 – 12 and July 27 – 28) that cover chapters 1 – 6 and chapters 7 – 13, respectively, and a cumulative final written during the final exam period. (See Grade Determination and Tentative Lecture Schedule and Assigned Readings on page 2 for more details about the contents and weights.)
- The date and time of your final will be posted in your Student Centre. You are responsible for that information.
- Midterms are available on D2L for 24 hours beginning at 11:45am Mountain on July 11 and July 27, respectively.
- You may begin them at a time of your choosing, but once you begin, you have 90 minutes (plus a 50 percent time extension) to complete the “exam process”, which must be completed before 11:45am Mountain on July 12 and July 28, respectively. You will have 120 minutes (plus a 50 percent time extension) to complete the final exam process in the designated window as determined by the Registrar’s Office.
- The “exam process” consists of downloading a file, containing a set of instructions and a declaration to behave in accordance with the university’s policies on Academic Integrity, that you are to sign and then upload.
- After that, your time begins, where you must download the exam, print it and answer the questions clearly and concisely by hand IN THE SPACES PROVIDED. Typewritten answers, additional sheets, scrap papers or any other materials submitted will NOT be considered.
- Before the window closes, you are to scan and upload the exam in PDF format with the pages in order, your name and student number printed and clearly visible in the top left corner of every page.
- Failure to follow the formatting and/or procedural instructions may result in a grade of zero.
- Late exams receive an automatic grade of zero with no weight transfer to other exams. The best way to avoid such a situation is to leave enough time before the deadline to upload the exams and allow for technical issues.
- The instructor will be available for exam-related questions and concerns during the final 135 minutes of the midterm windows. (The instructor’s availability for the final will be determined once the final exam date is set.) If you choose to write at any other time, you will be unable to get any questions or concerns addressed.
- All exams are closed book, non-proctored, exams to be completed using Dropbox on D2L. Exams involve algebra, definitions, interpretations and multi-part questions where the answer to one question may lead to another. Exams do not contain multiple-choice questions.
- You may use a non-programmable calculator and scrap paper to assist you, but you may NOT use any other additional materials, including but not limited to notes, slides, online or offline materials, external websites, formula sheets, previous exams, dictionaries, your phone/tablet or any other electronic device or anything else that would normally fall within the GENERALLY-ACCEPTED definition of cheating.
Furthermore, you are to do this exam ON YOUR OWN, without discussing the materials with anybody inside or outside of the class for the entirety of the 24-hour window, regardless of when you write. If you fail to follow any of these instructions, you will receive a grade of zero for the exam and will face academic misconduct proceedings in accordance with the university’s policies on Academic Integrity. If you are aware of somebody else violating this policy and do not report them, then you are in violation of this policy. If you are unsure if what you are doing is acceptable, ask first.

While solution sets are likely available online or from previous students, if you acquire, distribute and/or utilise this material, intentionally or unintentionally, you are in violation of the university’s policies on Academic Integrity and will receive a grade of zero for the exam and will face academic misconduct proceedings. If you are aware of somebody else violating this policy, you are in violation of this policy. If you are unsure if what you are doing is acceptable, ask first.

Once you begin an exam, you are committed to completing it, just as if you were in a live classroom and showed up to an exam.

If you are unable to write a midterm because of instructor-approved documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, D2L technical issue, exam scheduling conflict or university-sanctioned event, its weight will be shifted to the final; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned.

There are NO MAKEUP, ALTERNATE OR DEFERRED MIDTERMS under any circumstances, nor may they be written early.

If you cannot write the final exam at the time assigned by the Registrar’s Office, you need to apply for a deferred exam (click here for details). Under no circumstances will the Department accommodate a direct request from a student. Final exam accommodations are almost never approved for reasons relating to personal vacation/travel or family events.

If you require university-approved special accommodations (e.g., 30 min/hr extra writing time), you must secure the necessary approval from Student Accessibility Services (click here for details) and notify me at least one week prior to the exam to receive it. You must factor these accommodations into your decision when to begin the exams.

You may review your exam during office hours provided that you have access to a webcam and that you use the opportunity to review your exam, rather than take notes, screen captures, etc. of the exam contents. Intellectual property laws protect the contents of the exam.
