Course Description:

The objective of this course is to provide an introduction to the major ideas from public choice and from social choice theory. The course begins by introducing students to models of anarchy, showing how and what form of government might arise in such models. Then we critically examine a subset of the major arguments for government, including public goods, externalities, and asymmetric information, introducing students to arguments about whether such problems can or cannot be solved by private individuals alone, and what role government can and does play in such situations. Then we examine models in which various degrees of public input are required for political decisions, ranging from none (dictatorship) to all (unanimity). Then we turn to systems under which majority rule is used. We first examine the positive characteristics of majority rule, including the problem of ‘cycling’ of social preferences, strategic behavior in voting, vote trading (logrolling), agenda control, and open and closed voting rules. Then we examine normative properties of majority rule, from Condorcet’s Jury Theorem through Arrow’s and May’s theorems. Then we examine both simple (e.g., sequential votes) and complicated (mechanism design) alternatives to majority rule. Next, we examine political competition in representative democracies, examining both first-past-the-post (simple plurality) systems and in proportional representation systems, and discuss the problems and economic outcomes under each. Then we turn to bureaucracy, federalism, the court system, models of legislative organization, and the paradox of voting, showing how governments operate in practice. The course concludes by first talking about rent-seeking in the context of government grants, and then discusses theory and evidence from the Stigler/Peltzman models of economic regulation, the Becker models of interest group competition, and the common agency models of government policy choice in the presence of interest group competition. Time permitting, we shall examine constitutions, just and utilitarian social contracts, and other topics in social welfare.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes:

Students who successfully complete this course will:

(i) Understand and appreciate the history, rationale, and functioning of modern governments.
(ii) Understand and appreciate key principles, theories and ideas in political economy literature including:
   a. Market failure and redistribution rationales for existence of governments;
   b. What economic conditions prevail absent a state
(i) Be able to understand the key principles in the political economy literature to analyse, critique, and craft regulatory institutions, processes, and policies.

(ii) Be able to apply the key principles in the political economy literature to analyse, critique, and craft regulatory institutions, processes, and policies.

*(iii) Be able to apply the key principles in the political economy literature to analyse, critique, and craft regulatory institutions, processes, and policies.

- Assess the strengths and weaknesses of different regulatory policies
- Assess the strengths and weaknesses of different regulatory institutions
- Assess the strengths and weaknesses of different government systems

Course Outline:

Origins of the State:
- Worlds absent a state: anarchy
- Extractive vs. Inclusive states – using the ‘monopoly on legitimate use of violence’
- Efficiency reasons for the state – Public goods, externalities, asymmetric information
- Redistribution reasons for the state – insurance and utilitarian redistribution
- How governments tax and spend

Public Choice in a Direct Democracy:
- Choice of a voting rule
- Majority rule: positive properties
- Majority rule: normative properties
- Simple alternatives to majority rule
- Complicated alternatives to majority rule

Public Choice in a Representative Democracy:
- Two-party competition – first-past-the-post systems
- Multi-party competition – proportional representation systems
- Federalism
- The paradox of voting
- Rent-seeking
- Interest groups, lobbying, and contributions
- Bureaucracy
- Legislative organization
Judicial system
Topics in Social and Public Choice:
  Gerrymandering – choosing the voters
  Social welfare functions and Arrow’s Theorem
  Dictatorship
  Just social contracts
  Constitution as a utilitarian contract
  Liberal rights and social choices

Prerequisites/corequisites:
  Econ 357 (pre-requisite)

Required Textbook(s):
  Introduction to Political Economy, John R. Boyce (to be distributed as PDF on D2L)
  Journal articles & other book chapters (to be distributed as PDF on D2L)

Books on Reserve:

Grading Scale
The official grading system will be used: http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html.

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

If a student’s letter grade on the final exam exceeds their midterm(s) letter grade, the weight of the midterm(s) is (are) transferred to the final exam. The student must have written the midterm(s) or provided supporting documentation for the absence(s) such as a medical note or statutory declaration.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a factor in the evaluation of student work. See https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html.
Any student work which remains undistributed after the last day of classes will be available to students through the instructor’s office during the instructor’s office hours.

The final examination will be comprehensive, scheduled by the Registrar, held in a classroom, and last 2 hours. If a student cannot write their final exam on the date assigned by the Registrar’s Office, they need to apply for a deferred exam www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final. Under no circumstance will this be accommodated by the Department.

Tests and exams WILL NOT involve multiple choice questions.

Programmable calculators, cellphones, textbooks, course notes, and other electronic devices will not be allowed during the writing of tests or final examinations. Students are reminded that simply being able to access their cellphone during an exam is academic misconduct.

The exact date for the in-class midterm is October 17, in class. Due dates for the assignments: Assignment 1: 19 September; Assignment 2: 10 October; Assignment 3: 7 November; Assignment 4: 5 December. All exams and assignments due at end of class on due date.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED ASSIGNMENTS/EXAMS under any circumstances, nor may the exams be written early. Students unable to write the assignments/exams because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the final examination; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned.

Reappraisal of Grades and Intellectual Honesty:
For reappraisal of graded term work, see Calendar I.2
