Fall 2023

Course Description:

This course provides students with the opportunity to extend and apply key concepts introduced in Econ 301 and Econ 357. The course will provide students with an opportunity to become familiar with, understand, and assess common business practices based on their microeconomic background and expertise. The emphasis is not only on developing familiarity student with basic accounting and finance, but on using the student's microeconomic background to assess and critique common business practice.

Course Learning Outcomes:

The objective is to provide students with the opportunity to develop expertise in the application and utilization of theory, gain familiarity with business practice and Excel, and gain a greater appreciation for the strengths and limitations of microeconomic analysis. The intent is to demonstrate how to measure and implement concepts in the theory of the firm, inter-temporal choice, and choice under uncertainty. In this respect the objective is for students to develop an understanding and a critical appreciation of financial statements, financial markets, corporate finance, and project evaluation. Completion of this course will provide students with an understanding of basic finance and accounting, as well as the use of Excel.

Examination Details:

Tests and exams WILL NOT involve multiple choice questions.

Cellphones, textbooks, course notes, and other electronic devices will not be allowed during the writing the midterm exam. A one-sided “cheat sheet,” which will be discussed in class, will be allowed during the midterm. Students are reminded that simply being able to access their cellphone during an exam is academic misconduct.

The date for the in-class midterm exam will be Oct. 20th, 2023. The midterm exam will be held in class.

The individual final case study will be open-book, take-home, comprehensive, with a deadline during the final exam period. Students will download the case study from D2L, complete the case in Excel and Word, and submit using Dropbox in D2L. Students will be given the case at least 10 days prior to the deadline.

Grading Policies:

The official grading system will be used. See <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html>.

Students must receive a passing grade on the final case study to pass the course. Students committing academic misconduct on the final case study will not receive a passing grade for the course.

If a student's letter grade on the final case study exceeds their midterm letter grade, the weight of the midterm is transferred to the final case study. The student must have written the midterm or provided supporting documentation for the absence.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a factor in the evaluation of student work. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED QUIZZES/TESTS/EXAMS under any circumstances, nor may the quizzes/tests/exams be written early. Students unable to write the quizzes/tests/exams because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the final case study; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned.

Any student work which remains undistributed after the last day of classes will be available to students through the instructor's office during the instructor's office hours.

Reappraisal of Grades:

For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2

Notes:

1. Students are responsible for all assigned material, e.g., supplementary material posted on D2L, regardless of whether or not the material was covered in class.
2. Please note that the following types of emails will receive no response: Emails which do not list the relevant course; emails which are not signed with student's full name and UCID; and emails involving questions that are specifically addressed on the course outline, lecture slides, or posted on D2L.
3. I teach hundreds of students every semester. I simply cannot answer questions regarding how to solve course material via email. If you have questions about how to solve a particular problem or are having difficulty with a topic, please post your question to the D2L discussion forum, ask during a class lecture, or come see me or your TA during our office hours.
